

WINEENTHUSIAST 92
POINTS

Domäne Wachau 2019 Liebenberg Federspiel Grüner Veltliner
(Wachau)

A lovely, pure and tantalising hint of ripe, fresh peach plays on the nose. The palate then sweeps in with concentrated freshness and citric precision, citing lemon and stone. This is vivid, slender, juicy, taut, bright, dry and utterly refreshing.

— A.K. Published 9/1/2020

WINEENTHUSIAST 91
POINTS

Domäne Wachau 2019 Ried Bruck Federspiel Riesling (Wachau)

Crushed citrus foliage and freshly cut lemon peel spell purity and thrilling freshness. The light, dry palate is made even more vivid with a little spritz on a super, bright, lemony body. This is bottled refreshment and vivaciousness with a dry, mouthwatering finish.

— A.K. Published 9/1/2020

WINEENTHUSIAST 91
POINTS

Domäne Wachau 2019 Federspiel Terrassen Riesling (Wachau)

Crushed yuzu-leaf notions on the nose spell vivid, aromatic, green- and yellow-tinged freshness. The palate intensifies this, with zesty intensity on a slender, dry and utterly citrus-filled body. A pithy edge lends texture and concentration. If you need refreshment, this is it. Lip-smackingly good.

— A.K. Published 7/1/2020

WINEENTHUSIAST 91
POINTS

Domäne Wachau 2019 Federspiel Terrassen Grüner Veltliner
(Wachau)

The nose speaks subtly of green pear, lemon zest and peppery green leaves. A slender, crisp palate unites all these notions, with fine freshness and a lovely herbal zing on the dry, appetizing finish. The lemon zestiness rings long.

— A.K. Published 7/1/2020